Why are the support reps unable to see the Closed option in the specified piclist?

- * The Case record type is missing Closed as a picklist value.
- * The Close Case page layout must be used to close a case.
- * The Show Closed Statuses m Case Status Field checkbox is set to the default.
- * The Support Process being used omits Closed as a status choice.

Explanation

A support process is a feature that allows administrators to define and enforce the stages that a case or work order must go through based on its record type. A support process determines which values are available for the status field for each record type. If a support process omits a certain value for the status field, such as Closed, then users will not be able to see or select that value when working with cases or work orders of that record type. Salesforce ADM-201: Detailed Exam Overview The Salesforce ADM-201 exam is made up of 60 multiple-choice and multiple-select questions. Additionally, this certification test contains 5 unscored questions. The time allocated for the completion is 105 minutes. To pass the exam successfully, you must give at least 65% of the correct answers. The ADM-201 test is proctored by the Kryterion company, the Salesforce testing partner. You can choose from two options of exam delivery: an online proctored test or an onsite session at any center. As for the price, the exam costs each candidate $200. The cost of retaking this test is 50% of the actual price. So, you will have to pay another $100 for retaking Salesforce ADM-201 if you fail your first attempt. The vendor updates its certification exams 3 times a year in compliance with the Salesforce release cycles. Within each release cycle, you have 3 chances to take the same test.
